

New College Telford Additional Learning Support

New College Telford welcomes all applicants and has considerable experience in supporting individuals with disabilities and/or learning difficulties. Our Additional Learning Support assistants provide a wide range of support tailored to the individual needs of students.

We can offer support with:

Dyslexia, Dyspraxia or Dyscalculia

Attention deficit-hyperactivity disorder (ADHD)

Autism spectrum disorder (ASD) or Asperger's syndrome

Mental health conditions

Physical difficulties

Hearing or visual impairment

Literacy and numeracy difficulties

Medical conditions

Access arrangement for exams

We support throughout the transition process, offer pre entry advice, college visits and support throughout the application, interview and enrolment process.

Our Additional Learning Support Team is experienced in supporting in-class or individual support sessions. They work with curriculum staff and external agencies reducing barriers and enabling opportunities to achieve and progress.

The team provides support in a variety of ways:

Assessing your support needs to put in place the right type of support

A Teaching & Learning Assistant to support you in the classroom and/or support you with research, assignments or directed private study.

A single point of contact for any issues related to your learning.

Support for hearing impairment students.

Support for visually impaired students.

Specialist assessment and additional tuition for learners with specific learning difficulties or dyslexia.

Assistive Technology equipment/technical support and specialist software.

Note-takers/readers.

Assistance with special exam arrangements and support in your exam.

Advice and guidance on claiming Disabled Students' Allowance on application to Higher Education.